In this one, I learned more than I ever knew existed about real tennis--which was a little hard for me since I don't know how to play "fake" tennis but I always I've enjoyed reading the Feathering Mysteries with unlikely friends and neighbors Jude and Carole for many years. If I were creating a world, I wouldn't mess around with butterflies and daffodils. In the midst of all this self-imposed pressure I missed out on meeting amazing people and finding a community on campus. Thenmyhusbandwasdiagnosedwithcancer,andIstoppedjuggling.
